forever changed transportation.

State Parks and its partner

Through special events and programs, many of which will feature living history, stories, songs, stage equipment, and actual historic stage roads, visitors will gain an appreciation for travel and communication in the era before the automobile.

EXPERIENCE THE PAST AT THESE SPECIAL EVENTS:

JULY 1 TO NOVEMBER 1 – “ROLLING THROUGH THE WEST”

a special exhibit presented by the Santa Ynez Valley Historical Museum, 3596 Sagunto Street, Santa Ynez, Calif. Noon to 4:00 p.m., Wednesdays through Sundays. The museum's newest exhibit offers a photographic look back at the stagecoaches in the Santa Ynez Valley and Santa Barbara areas, with a perspective on the history of stagecoaches, their construction and influence on the American West and California. The museum is home to the renowned Parks-Janeway Carriage House and its extensive collection of outstanding carriages, saddles and horse-related gear.

AUGUST 9 & 10 – THE HERITAGE TRAIL presented by Placer County museums. 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Trek back in time along Placer County's museum trail. For this special occasion, admissions will be free to travelers visiting all 18 participating museums, from Roseville to Tahoe. Join the fun! Learn about events that made Placer County's past so colorful. They included the Gold Rush, construction of the First Transcontinental Railroad and developing winter sports, like skiing. A Trail Guide will be available at every museum, listing the attractions, activities, and driving directions.

Mud wagon stages that once served the Placer County gold mining communities in the late 1800s can be seen in Auburn. The No. 1 Colfax, Yankee Jim & Forest Hill Stage is on view at the Placer County Museum in the Historic Courthouse and the Colfax & Iowa Hill Stage No. 2 is in the carriage barn at the Bernhard Museum Complex.

Participating Museums include:

Valley Museums: Roseville Historical Society Carnegie Museum; Maidu Interpretive Center; Rocklin History Museum; and Griffith Quarry Museum

Auburn Museums: Placer County Museum; Gold Country Medical History Museum; Joss House Museum; Bernhard Museum Complex; and The Benton Welty School Room

Foothill Museums: Forest Hill Divide Museum; Colfax Area Heritage Museum; Golden Drift Museum; Big Bend Visitor Center; and Western SkiSport Museum
